ABOUT

Product designer who makes complex, data-heavy products feel simple — AI assessment reports, analytics dashboards, and an 800K-user SaaS platform. 5 years owning design end to end across web and mobile — from user research and wireframing through design systems and developer handoff, increasingly on AI-native products.

EXPERIENCE

SmallTalk2Me

Oct 2024 – Present

Product Designer · Contract · Remote

Conversational AI for English · B2B/B2C · 2.5M+ learners

- Redesigned the AI assessment reports into one unified system (web + mobile) for 2.5M learners — turning 25 raw speech metrics into six clear skills a learner or hiring manager can act on in seconds; now live
- Designed monetization flows in a cross-functional agile team; drove +15% lift in user conversion
- Designed a B2C giveaway campaign — visual system, landing page, and UGC tracking; generated 10K+ submissions and +20% lift in trial sign-ups
- Started SmallTalk2Me's Figma design system for responsive web and mobile

GanttPRO

Jun 2021 – Sep 2023

Product Designer · Full-time · Sole designer

SaaS project management · 800,000+ users

- Led the 2-year full-platform redesign in Figma (web + mobile) as the sole designer on the redesign; drove +25% mobile downloads and +17% user satisfaction
- Designed GanttPRO's cross-platform mobile app — one app for iOS & Android — from the ground up; built personas, documented 40+ edge cases, created the company's first mobile design system, and led developer handoff
- Cut bounce rate 8% through iterative wireframing, prototyping, and usability testing; audited 5 competitors and tested 3 directions before committing
- Collaborated with product and engineering across agile sprints to ship the redesign to 800,000 users step by step, without breaking existing workflows

Freelance

Jan 2021 – Sep 2021

UX/UI Designer · Self-employed

- Delivered end-to-end responsive web and mobile design; boosted engagement by 20% via A/B testing and increased retention by 15% through usability-driven iterations

Career Break — Relocation from Europe to United States · Oct 2023 – Nov 2024
